CALLAHAN'S COMETS IN FIRST GAME

Tom Hughes Holds Leaders Safe, and Griffith's Lads Pound the Rall.

RAY MORGAN GETS A HOMER

By WILLIAM PEET.

Chicago, June 5.-"I told you where ou would get off," chirped Manager Griffith, of the Nationals, to his old friend, Jimmy Callahan, of the White Sox, when McBride, with a pretty throw to Gandil, retired the third party in the ninth to-day, and the Washington crew had eight runs against Chicago's four. Griff added, "You'll be lucky if you win one game from us this trip." Cal turned

To-day's victory makes six in a row, and, incidentally, Washington was the anxious to pitch and Griff gave way, only Eastern club to-day to come Eddie Foster was presented with two through with a win.

Callahan's Comets died hard. Four pitchers and a couple of pinch hitters were rushed to the field of battle in an attempt to pull the game out of the fire, but it was to use. Benz was knocked out of the box in the third; Mogridge lasted long enough for the Nationals to reach him for two runs. Peters was in-effective, and Dec White had to finish him three to-day. out the game.

asy fashion. He was touched up lively at intervals, and in the sixth, after Collins had hit the ball into the left field this morning. Mike has looked over the tunds for a homer, it looked as if "Long Eastern League teams and is now headed" Wire Received Calling for Reservaom would blow up, but he settled lown, and furing the three remaining ounds allowed but one hit, a three-agger by Weaver in the ninth.

The Nationals only made one error behind Hughes. This miscue was costly, and permitted a run in the opening chap-ter, but McBride more than made up for the "boot" later in the game, handling all told seven hard chances, in brilliant

PAST PERFORMANCES
The white hosed gang had a clean two run lead when, with two down in the Nationals third, Griff's youngsters shot three tallies over the plate so quickly the crowd gasped in astonishment. Tom Hughes singled to right, Moeller crashed through Zeider and when Lord let the ball get away from him on Collins' long throw to third, Hughes crossed the plate away from him on Collins' long throw to third, Hughes crossed the plate away from him on Collins' long throw to third, Hughes crossed the plate A wild pitch sent Moeller to third, and Foster drew a walk. Foster and Moeller crashed from the ball to center field and Moeller coanse home. With the came back strong and threw the ball to center field and Moeller canne home.

GOOD MATCHES IN TENNIS TOURNEY

Third Day's Play in Middle Atlantic Tournament Brings Good Scores.

The Middle Atlantic Tennis Tournament was continued yesterday afternoon on the courts of the Butchelors' Club and brought out the best games that have been seen so far. The third round in the men's singles turnished some good games, but the sur-prise of the afternoon was when A. How-ard, who had been picked by many to win the event, was defeated by N. Mc-Lean, by 6-2, 5-2 McLean has been putting up some strong games during the form yesterday when his difficult serves and accurate placing proved too much for Howard.

L. A. Pisher was defeated by A. Hellen

L. A. Fisher was defeated by A. Hellen after a strong defense, when he com-pelled the winner to extend himself to his best. Hellen will meet John Briton to-morrow in what will likely prove one of the fastest games of the day. The consolations were all excellently contested and some of the best work of the day was seen in these events. P. L. Treanor, the fourteen-year-old Batchelor man, covered himself with glory when he defeated M. H. Stevens in the second torious by 22 to 10.

New York, June & Slugging with consistent impartiality, the three pitchers sent to the mound by Manager ('Day, John Britton and McLean proved themselves a hard pair to beat in the men's doubles, and easily defeated Woodward and Dove yesterday, 6-4, 6-1. There will be no events in the women's tical.
